Sir:

The undersigned hereby surrenders U.S. Letters Patent 5,687,939.

REMARKS

On or about April 5, 2000 the undersigned received the enclosed U.S. Letters Patent document 5,687,939 from the Applicant's Toronto, Ontario counsel, George H. Rolston. This document was previously believed to be unavailable. It was believed by the undersigned and the Applicant, Jerry Moscovitch, that this document was still in the possession of the Canadian patent lawyer who had prepared the application from which the 5,687,939 patent issued. That individual was Mirek Waraksa.

Attempts to contact Mr. Waraksa earlier during prosecution of the present reissue application, in an attempt to obtain this important document, had been unsuccessful. It was only after contacting Mr. Rolston to determine if Mr. Rolston had created or otherwise obtained any formal drawings for the above-referenced application did the undersigned receive this document from Mr. Rolston's office. The undersigned had no knowledge that this document was in Mr. Rolston's possession during the pendency of the present reissue application.

The undersigned regrets any inconvenience to the Office concerning this matter. If there are any questions concerning this matter the undersigned may be contact at (248) 641-1229.

Respectfully submitted,

HARNESS, DICKEY & PIERCE, P.L.C.
